A reading from the book of wisdom

The virtuous man, though he dies before his time, will find rest.
Length of days is not what makes age honourable,
Nor the number of days the true measure of life.
Understanding, this is man's grey hairs,
untarnished life, this is ripe old age.

He has sought to please God, so God has loved him.
As he was living among sinners, he has been taken up.
He has been carried off so that evil may not warp his understanding or treachery seduce his soul.

For the fascination of evil throws good things into the shade,
and the whirlwind of desire corrupts a simple heart.
Coming to perfection in so short a while, he achieved long life.
His should be pleasing to the lord,
he has taken him quickly from the wickedness around him.
Yet people look on, uncomprehending.

It does not enter their heads that grace and mercy await the chosen of the lord, and protection, his holy ones.

*This is the Word of the Lord
Thanks be to God.*

Responsorial Psalm: 23 – Reader: Shane Feeney

Response: The lord is my Shepherd there is nothing I shall want

Second Reading: Reader: Joseph Feeney

A reading from the letter of St. Paul to the Philippians

For us our homeland is in heaven.
And from heaven there is a saviour we are waiting for,
The lord Jesus Christ. And he will transfigure these bodies of ours into copies of his glorious body. He will do that by the same power with which he can subdue the whole universe.

*This is the word of the lord.
Thanks to be God.*
